

Youth Indoor Rock Climbing Program

This climbing program is designed to empower youth and provide a safe, fun team oriented space to discover the sport of rock climbing organized and facilitated by experienced, certified instructors. Sessions will take place on Sundays every week throughout the Spring semester. We will explore climbing movements that are adapted to their ability and desire and provide a space for personal growth and climbing development.

Fill out the survey to give us your input and receive updates on the program!

For any additional questions/comments email or call/text:

Peerenboomlily@gmail.com

(920) 470-2901