

In Memory of

Betty Giedd

Class of 1964

Born ? - Died ?

The class of "64" lost one of its members when Bette Giedd died after falling from her horse. Her death is more than just a statistic; it is a gap in her class and in her school. Bette had a quick smile for her classmates to go with her friendly personality. More than just a member of the Senior class Bette was a vital part of the school, and her death creates a vacuum.

Picture taken from Kodak 1964, pg. 172 (Memorial Yearbook)