

In Memory of
Randy R Kowalski

Class of 1971
24 October 1953 - 9 March 1971

We only ask for sunshine,
We did not ask for rain;
But see the flowers that spring from showers
All up and down the plain.

We beg the gods for laughter,
We shrink, we dread the tears;
But grief's redress is happiness,
Alternate through the years.

Randy Kowalski Was sick a lot before the end of 1970 and missed school a lot. By the time the students knew what his problem was - he died not long after that. I sat next to him in one of the classes but he kept the secret well. I found out too late like the others that he was not coming back to school, He died soon after that. Randy had a unique habit at school, He always carried a briefcase around school with his schoolbooks inside. I don't remember another student that did that.
