

In Memory of

Richard Cartwright

Class of 1967

Born ? - Died ?

Late this year, Richard Cartwright became the victim of a highway crash, which stunned everyone who knew him. The class of '67 lost one of its members when Richard Cartwright died. His death is more than just a statistic; it is a gap in his class and in his school. His life is held in memory by the class of 1967.

This picture taken from Kodak 1967 supplement, pg. 17 (Memorial Yearbook)