

Putnam Heights Fifth Grade School Closure Assignments

Suggested Daily Academics:

Each day, the students' Digital Classroom Canvas Page will be updated with a new module. Students should watch the video in the announcement to see what that day's suggested academic activities are. Each day will have a math activity in Think Central, a reading, and a writing activity.

- Canvas App—Mrs. Standen or Mr. Mabie's Digital Classroom—Click on Module for that Date
- Think Central App—Open in Chrome, tap "Open"—Click on "Things to Do"

Other Academic Choices:

Math

- Think Central additional practice: To access additional math practice, follow this pathway: Think Central App—Open in Chrome, tap "Open"—Click on "My Library"—Math Activity Center G5 Student

Options Include:

- Printable practice and challenge worksheets—these work pages can be printed or displayed on the screen while your child does their work in a notebook. Only complete assignments from Units 1-5, and Unit 8 Lessons 1-9.
- Lesson Checks—these are completed on the iPad. This includes a review of skills that have been already taught. Lesson checks also allow you to check your answers and display step-by-step directions if needed. Only complete Lesson Checks from Units 1-5, and Unit 8 Lessons 1-9.
- Fluency Practice—these are completed on the iPad, but students may need paper to perform the calculations. They review multi-digit multiplication.

Writing

- Students can keep a daily journal in a notebook where they write about their day or anything else that is on their mind.
- Typing Club

Familiar children's author, Mo Willems, has launched a series on YouTube because of school closures called "Lunch Doodles." You can find the first episode here:
