

Hey, Panthers!

I hope you are finding ways to make music during this time. I've had several families share pictures and videos with me at jmiller@ecasd.us. Keep 'em coming! I love to see you're singing, or playing your recorder, or piano, or guitar, or trumpet . . . however you're making music is perfect!

Time for Absolute Pitches!

Below, you'll see a guide to letter names of pitches on the treble clef staff. 4th and 5th graders should remember this from earlier in the year. 3rd graders, you've done more work with solfege (do re mi), but it works the same way. The guide will help you to name the pitches on the next page. See if you can figure out the words for "I Thought That I was Crazy". You can also make words with the pitches in the Classics for Kids game you can find at the following link:

Have fun!
