CARNIVAL OF THE ANIMALS

Part One

The Carnival of the Animals is a lighthearted musical composition of fourteen movements by the French composer Camille Saint-Saëns. He composed it as a musical joke for his students. It is one of the best-known pieces of classical music for children. These are the first three movements. Read the directions for each piece, click on the link, and move to the music!

Royal March of the Lion

During the introduction, peek out of the cave to see the other animals who have come to watch the royal parade! Put on your crown, and . . . MARCH! Remember to "ROAR" whenever you hear the sounds in the music.

Hens and Roosters

During the hen part, peck your way around the room like chickens. When the rooster crows, flap your wings, show your comb (by propping your hand sideways on your head) crow toward the ceiling with a "Cock-a-Doodle-Do!"

Tortoises
