

THE RUBIK'S

CUBE

PART 3

By Ms. Nanci

Today, I will solve this puzzle!

Now, where can I get help?

A woman with grey hair pulled back, wearing glasses and a purple long-sleeved shirt, is shown in profile, looking towards the left. She has a thoughtful or nostalgic expression. The background is a plain wall with a framed picture of a tree. A dark wooden cabinet is visible in the lower left.

The enthusiasts at school really knew how to solve! If only I could talk to them now!

BING!

I just got an email!

“Montessori Cube Enthusiasts?”
MCE? That’s a thing?!

Maybe they can give me step-by-step instructions over email!

That would take 1,000 emails!
What I really need is someone to SHOW me.

Too bad I can't sit down at a lunch table
or on a recess bench
with the MCE...

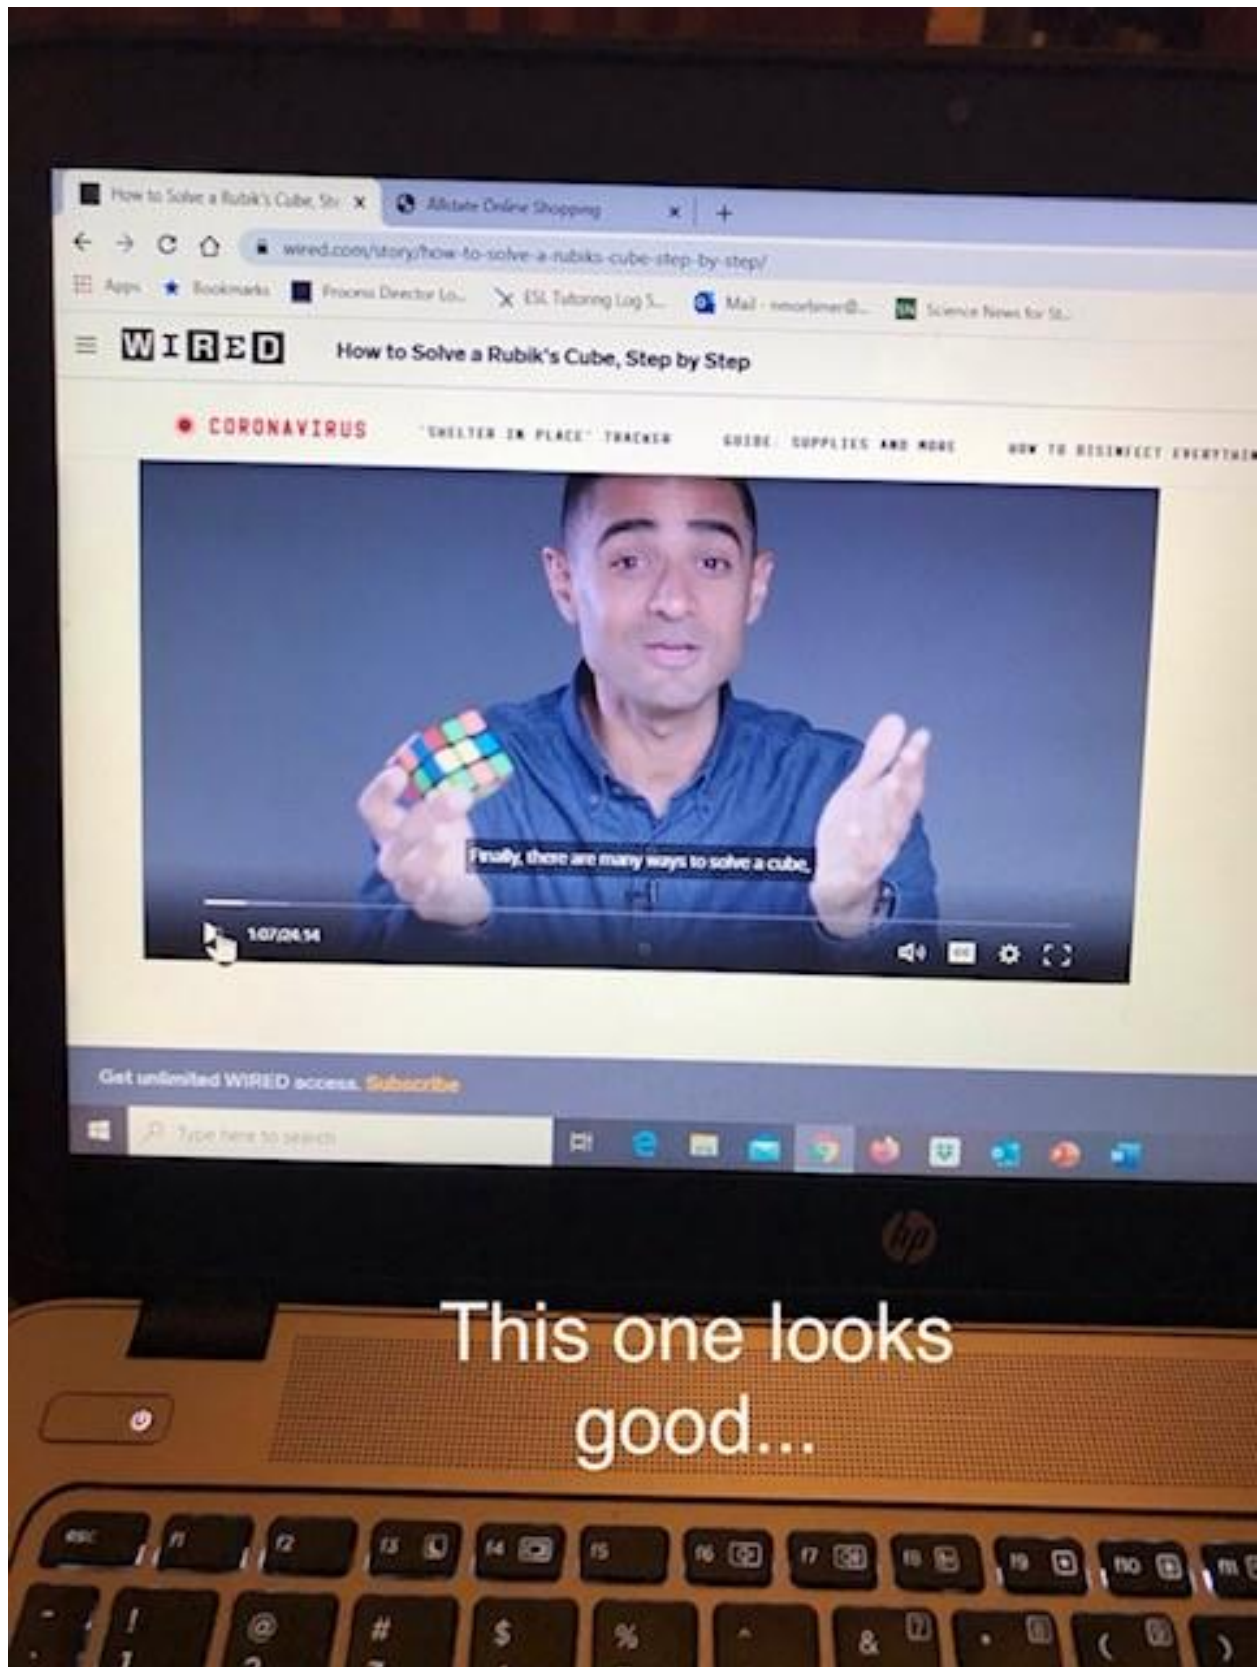

If I close my eyes,
maybe I can remember
some of their cube
moves...

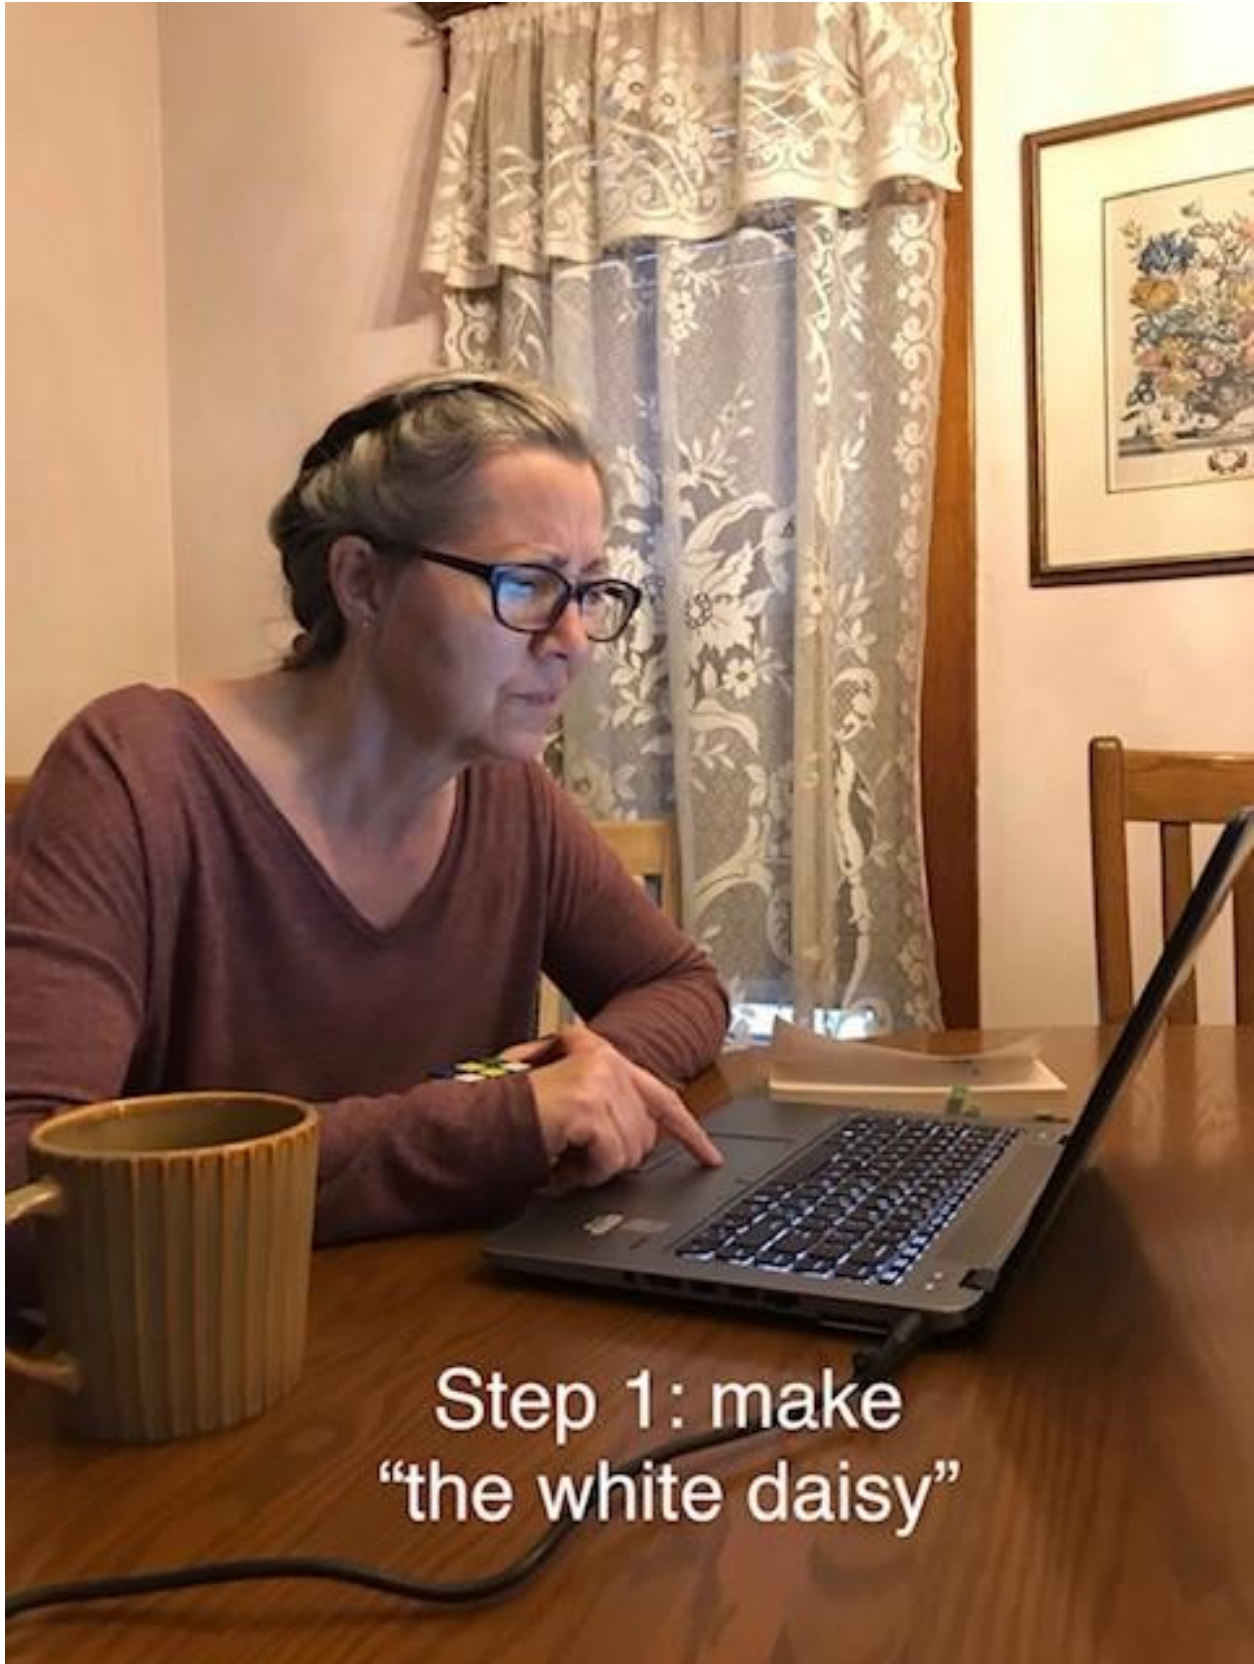

Nope.

Maybe I can look up something on YouTube.

This one looks good...

Step 1: make
"the white daisy"

Do you have any suggestions?

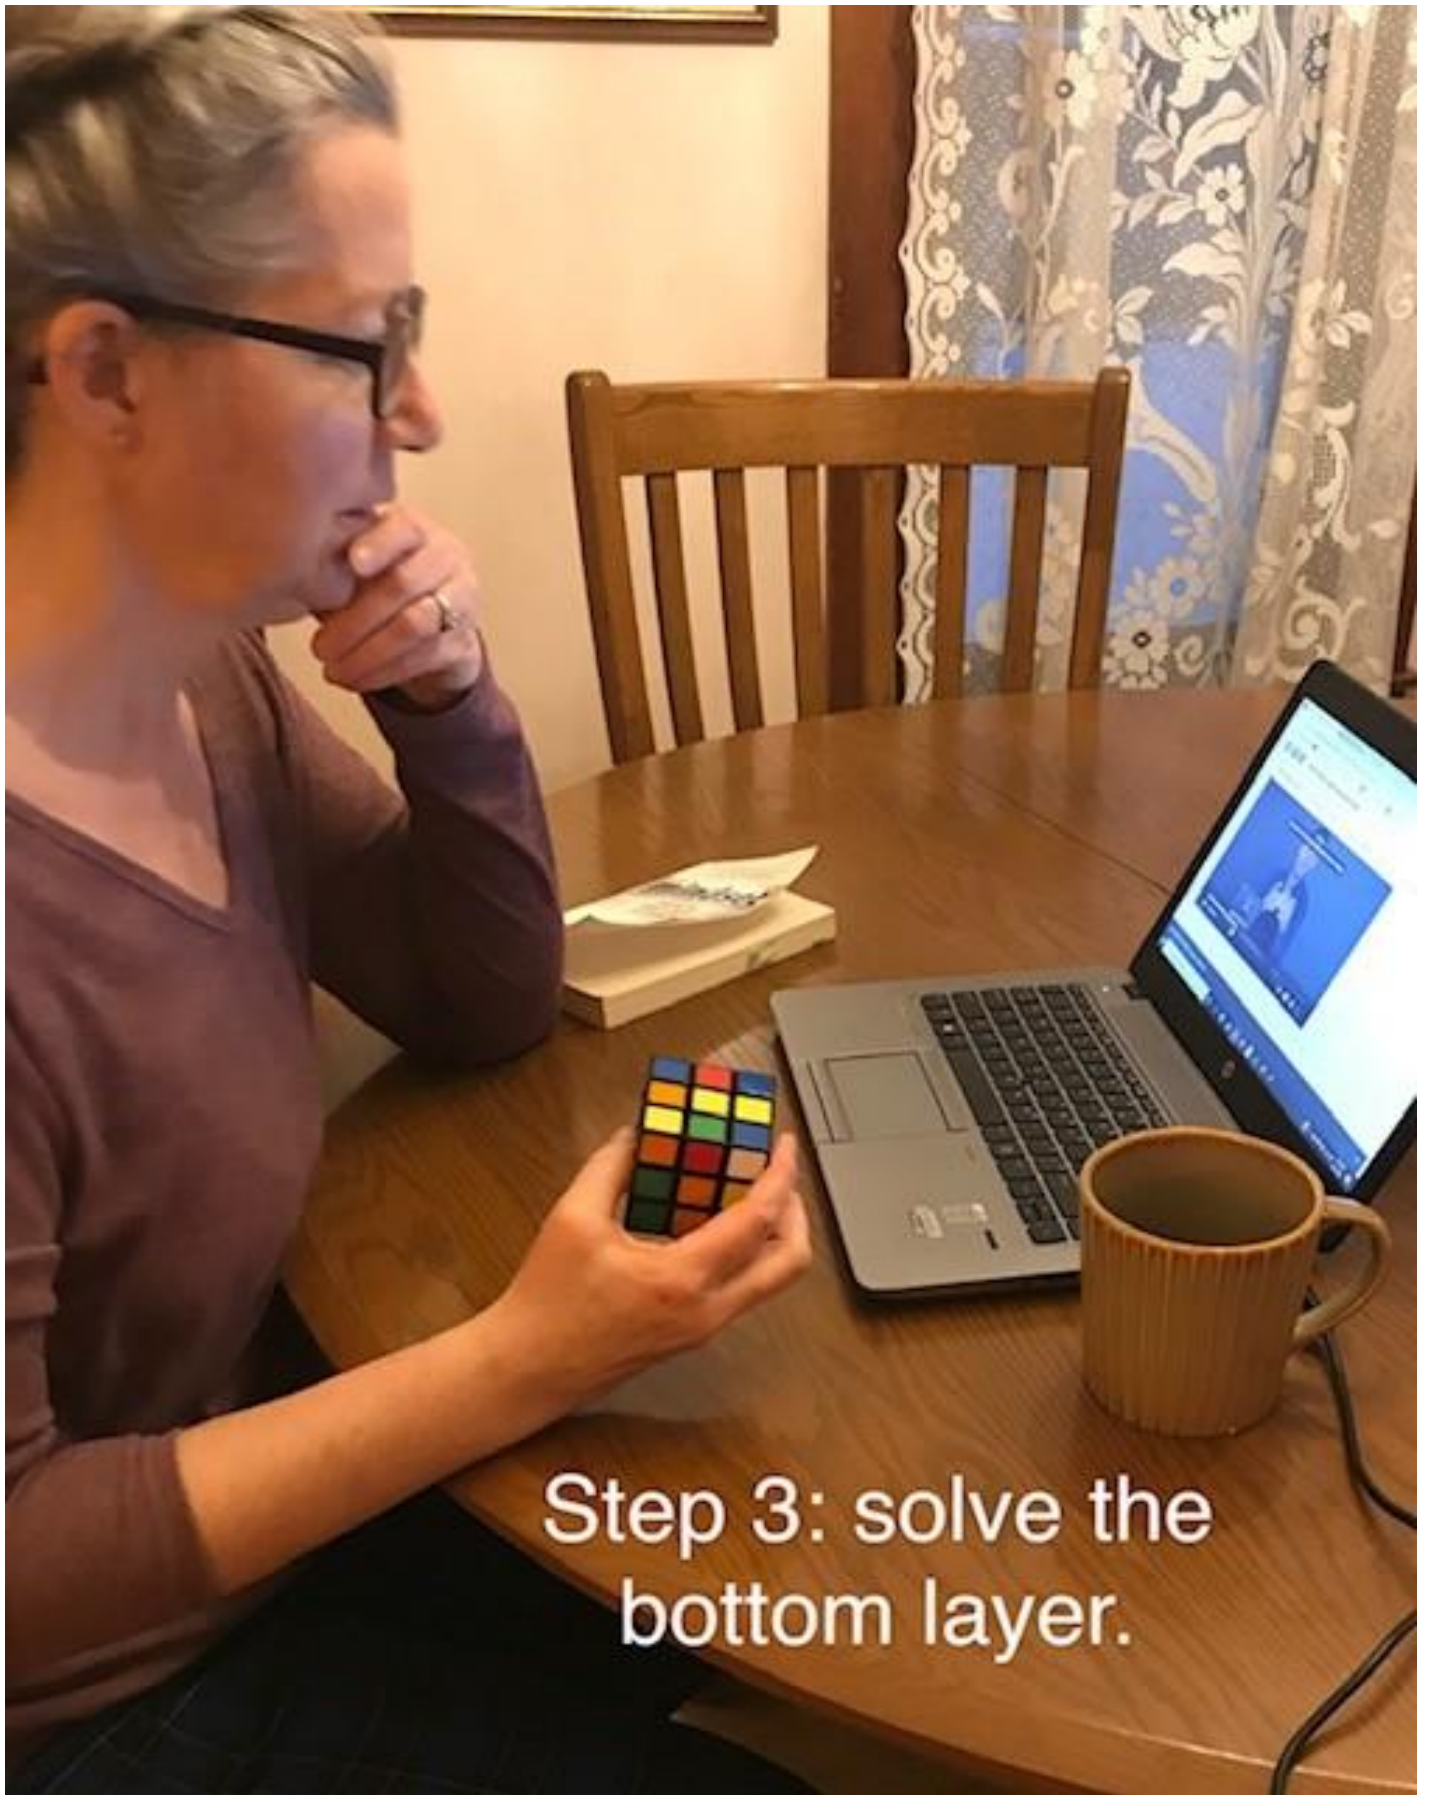

Step 2: "the white cross"

Step 3: solve the bottom layer.

Right Trigger: turn clockwise and then counter clockwise and then ...?

Oops! I'd better
eat something...

It snowed! Holy Cow!
How long have I been working on this?

Where were we?
Oh, yes, the Right
and Left Triggers...

I did it!

Only five more sides to go...

...tomorrow.
