Forensics Team: Remember to turn in your Forensics paperwork to Ms. Sy in room 214. If you have questions, come to the commitment meeting on Tuesday, November 21 at 3 in the auditorium.

Today, South's Power of Perception Chapter will meet in the Interactive Room in the Grade 8 Wing. Participating students will receive a green pass this morning to excuse them from class during Period 6 or 7. If you have questions, see Ms. Kruger or Mrs. Mroczenski.

NJHS is holding a homeless drive now through November 22. Bring in coats, hats, mittens, gloves, scarfs and hand warmers to your falcon time. The falcon time that brings in the most items will get a prize! Try to bring more in than the South staff! Boxes are in your Falcon Time with a list of items to bring. Thank you!

Native American Month

Today's highlight is Sokaogon (So - kay - o - gone) Chippewa Community or Mole Lake Band. Sokaogon means "Post in the Lake" people because of the spiritual significance of a post, possibly the remains of a petrified tree, that stood in nearby Post Lake. This community is also known as the Lost Tribe because the legal title to the 12-mile square reservation from the treaty of 1854 was lost in a shipwreck on Lake Superior.

Did You Know:

Today is World Kindness Day

Established in 1998, the day was intended to highlight positive actions in the community focused on our bonds with each other. In addition, it's designed to bridge the distances between all kinds of differences—and encourage unity and empathy across people and groups.

Today lend helping hand and assist someone with their homework or a project at home or school.
